

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, I really appreciate the gentleman's wonderful summary of my bill up until the point where he raised the issue around preferential businesses, such as ATMs. There is no preferential treatment for any industry in this bill. All retail transactions are treated the same.

As the gentleman speaks on businesses being able to charge a higher price, I don't know about North Carolina, but in New Jersey, when I go to the gas station, there is a higher price charged for credit, not cash. So I think he kind of had that in reverse.

Mr. Speaker, this is an opportunity for 55 million Americans who don't have banking accounts or are underbanked, to continue to be a part of this economy. There is a population in this country, believe it or not, who would rather not be in the banking system.

□ 1415

I am just trying to protect the underserved and the underbanked. I don't know the makeup of the gentleman's district in North Carolina, although I think his attire is splendid with the bowtie. But back in his district, I don't know if they are affluent or not. I have some of the poorest Americans in my district, and they are reaching out to me saying: What do I do?

What happens to the grandmother who lives in a two-flight walkup and the store that she uses is on the first floor? Mr. Speaker, now, this business decides that they are not going to accept her cash anymore. You are asking this woman to walk another three or four blocks to find someone, like a pauper: "Who will take my cash? Who will take my cash? Will you take my money? Will you take my cash?"

"No, no cash allowed here. Be gone."

That is what we are looking at. That is what we are trying to prevent.

Mr. Speaker, I just say that we are here to fight for the underserved, the underbanked, and the unbanked.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MCHENRY. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman's time fully expired?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman's time has entirely expired.

Mr. MCHENRY. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, I agree with the gentleman from New Jersey. I agree with Mr. PAYNE on his choice of attire. I think the fact that two of us, who are very well dressed—appropriately dressed, I would say—are having a debate and are on different sides of this issue is very unbecoming of the bowtie community. We stand together more closely than this.

Mr. Speaker, I welcome my colleague—the fact that he has an undertaking in this arena to talk about the question of cash acceptance, I think, is important.

There are a number of questions that I have raised about this bill that I think are important. The private right of action in Federal court is problematic for us on this side of the aisle. The requirement to have a machine on site—on page 2 of the bill, it says the retail facility, or whatever the facility is, that is accepting payment, they have to provide customers with the means on the premises to convert cash into a card that is either a general-use prepaid card, a gift card, or an access device for electronic funds transfer. So it is a very specific requirement to have on premises.

Imagine the same scenario of this nice lady that lives in his district, Mr. PAYNE's district, who goes downstairs to purchase whatever, whether it is from a grocery store or whatever. Now, imagine they had an ATM that was two doors down. Under the construct of this bill, that wouldn't be sufficient.

There are important things to get at here. I oppose the amendment, but I welcome the debate.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 1170, the previous question is ordered on the amendment offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PAYNE).

The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PAYNE).

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. MCHENRY. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 3(s) of House Resolution 8, the yeas and nays are ordered.

Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this question are postponed.

REMOVAL OF NAME OF MEMBER AS COSPONSOR OF H.R. 2107

Mr. GAETZ. Madam Speaker, I hereby remove my name as cosponsor of H.R. 2107.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Ms. BURDEAUX). The gentleman's request is accepted.

REMOVAL OF NAME OF MEMBER AS COSPONSOR OF H.R. 5344

Mr. CARTWRIGHT. Madam Speaker, I hereby remove my name as cosponsor of H.R. 5344.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman's request is accepted.

RISING COSTS ARE SIMPLY UNACCEPTABLE

(Mr. LANGEVIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LANGEVIN. Madam Speaker, I rise today in support of the Lower Food and Fuel Costs Act.

Every day, I hear from Rhode Islanders rightly frustrated by the rising cost of everyday goods.

Exacerbated by Putin's invasion of Ukraine, grocery bills are climbing higher, gas costs more than $5 per gallon, and tangled supply chains continue to fuel inflation.

The American people are being pushed to the breaking point. The status quo is simply unacceptable.

This bill will provide relief to Americans feeling the pain at the pump by boosting domestic biofuel production, and it will drive down costs at the grocery store.

Best of all, Democrats have worked hand-in-glove with our Republican colleagues to advance this bipartisan legislation out of committee and onto the House floor.

Madam Speaker, this legislation is a great step in the right direction, but we must do more. We must crack down on gas companies exploiting this crisis for profit.

Like President Biden suggested, we must work with oil companies to address supply and capacity shortages.

Finally, if we don't want to be back to this point ever again, we must accelerate our transition away from fossil fuels once and for all. The American people are counting on us.

GAS PRICES HAVE DOUBLED

(Mr. LAMALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMALFA. Madam Speaker, gas prices have doubled under President Biden's failed anti-American energy policies. But I don't know which is worse, that the national average per gallon of gas is 5 bucks or that—in my home State of California, we would like to see 5 bucks once again. Prices are well over $7, thanks to decades' worth of regulatory assault on American gas in California and now at the Washington level.

While the American people are struggling to keep up financially, the Secretary of Energy and the Secretary of Transportation tell them to go buy electric vehicles. If American families are struggling to afford these outrageous gas prices, what makes these bureaucrats think that they can afford a brand-new $50,000 electric vehicle? Enough of this “let them eat cake” attitude.

These gas prices weren't caused by Russia's invasion of Ukraine. They were caused by regulatory assault on our energy industry and domestic production being killed.

President Biden, take responsibility for your failed energy policies. Stand down from your war on American energy, and unleash American energy independence and help our people for a change.

CELEBRATING 10TH ANNIVERSARY OF DACA

(Mr. CÁRDENAS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CÁRDENAS. Madam Speaker, I rise today in celebration of the 10th anniversary of DACA, the program that has protected nearly 1 million inspiring young people and given them the opportunity to contribute to our great economy.

Dreamers are our family, friends, and neighbors. They are teachers, doctors and nurses, small business owners, servicemembers, and so much more.

They work hard and contribute to our great economy. They make America a better place for everyone. Yet, they face unspeakable hardships and witness the ugliness of anti-immigrant sentiments in our great country. But their resilience has shined through all of that.

Let me be clear. Today is an incredible milestone, but another 10 years without permanent protections and a pathway to citizenship is simply unjust. That is why I will continue to fight to give every single Dreamer that continues to live in our country permanency, because in America, we believe that when given that shot at the American Dream, anything is possible.

RECOGNIZING ALZHEIMER'S AND BRAIN AWARENESS MONTH

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, June is Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month. Worldwide, there are an estimated 47 million people living with Alzheimer's and other dementias. Without a change, these numbers are expected to grow to 76 million by the year 2030.

Alzheimer's is the sixth leading cause of death in the United States and is the only leading cause of death that cannot be prevented, cured, or even slowed. Sadly, one in three seniors will die with the disease.

This disease took my mother's life.

Alzheimer's has a devastating impact on those who are diagnosed with the disease and their caregivers and loved ones. More than 16 million Americans provide unpaid care to family and friends living with Alzheimer's and other forms of dementia.

Compared with caregivers for people without dementia, twice as many caregivers for people with dementia indicate substantial emotional, financial, and physical stress.
